The Secret
Hidden
Inside

When wishing to have a perfect skin, we must understand our body first!

Our skin is the mirror of the interaction between the outer world and the status of our inner body. Perfection is the reflection of body's harmony; individual imperfections are signals of biologic balance deflection.

By means of carefully selected most active ingredients, we take care of the skin, provide the inner organism with power and restore the requisite calmness of the mind.

Basic principles

We approach every single aspect of our products with the best care and pure intent. Every product is based on highest natural foundations; it is well-absorbed and skin-friendly while providing smooth application and long-term effects. The extraordinary amount of active substances is a combination of methods of phytotherapy, aromatherapy, crystaltherapy, Traditional Chinese Medicine and bioresonance to achieve the best possible effect resulting from the interaction of these methods.

Natural perfumes

Natural perfumes consist of aromatherapeutic amounts of the rarest essences only and give an exceptional individuality to each product. They are instruments of a gentle therapy that has the enormous potency to reach deep mind and harmonize the inner power. Containing the solely essence of herbs, these perfumes are the most powerful substances in plant kingdom: many of them are even the most expensive ones.

Quality

For production, we use only proved raw materials of highest quality that have been selected in a way to meet the demanding requirements of natural cosmetics. We carefully choose our suppliers of active substances and cooperate with them to ensure that natural biorhythms, high purity, energetic value and therapeutic effect of the substances will be respected. We use no parabens, synthetic colorants and fragrances, no mineral oils, oil derivatives, genetically modified organisms, chemical UV filters or SLS.

Pentagram Idea

The basis of the skin care cosmetics is a line of five RENOVE skin creams developed according to the principle of the harmony of five agents.

Five unique creams represent the five agents of Traditional Chinese Medicine: Wood, Earth, Fire, Metal and Water. Five products – and each of them focuses, via its effects, on a certain group of body organs, on a certain skin type, status of mind or imbalance of the inner organism. The individual products not only build on each other but they also complement and align each other and form a compact system.

By choosing the right cream, a space for playfulness and, primarily, for own intuition is being opened. Whether you choose your cream by scent, colour, mood or a particular need your choice will be always right.

Phytotherapy

The polycomposite extract amounts for exceptional 16% of the content. Depending on the particular product, it consists of 13 to 19 medicinal plants carefully put together to achieve the targeted therapeutic effect.
